OLIVE TREES MEAN A FUTURE

Blackstone Intelligence Network

Thank you for planting

1,102 Olive Trees in Palestine

These trees have been donated to a farming family in Palestine in your name. They will provide nourishment and a sustainable income for hundreds of years to come.

Olive trees are central to the culture and heritage of Palestine. Some orchards in the West Bank contain trees that are over 1000 years old, and they are still cultivated by farming families to this day.
